City Authorities Trying to Get Rid of Its

Floating Indebtedness.

The city authorities are now figuring on some plan of getting rid of the floating indebtedness of the city before the next administration comes into power. According to a recent decision of Judge Anderson, of the court of common pleas, the officials will be compelled to keep the expenditures within the amount of revenue received after April. In order to do this the present officials will have to take up all the old day said: "It seems to me that this is not the burning question with the tax-payers of this city at the present time. The important question now before the important question now before the people is how to get along without issuing any new bonds. There have been alimost enough bonds issued and the people do not want many more issued until some of the court of common pleas, the officials of Judge Anderson, of the court of common pleas, the officials of the court administration has kept down the issue of the old ones are paid off. The present within the amount of revenue received attachministration has kept down the issue of the old ones are paid off. The present of the very lowest limit and I think this line ought to be followed out in the future for some time."

Persons suffering from indigestion will gain no positive permanent good from the fiery, unmedicated stimulants of commerce, too often used recklessly. # "You Don't Become a Slave to their Use!"

The above words have been truthfully spoken concerning Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets by one who has had abundant opportunity to observe their more favorable action as compared with that of other pills.

Most pills and medicines in use for constipation, in the long run, "make a bad matter worse." Unlike such agents, Dr. Pierce's Pellets exert such a tonic or strengthening effect upon the membranes of the stomach and bowels, as to produce lasting benefit. Their use can, therefore, be gradually discontinued. With most pills the longer they are taken, the more dependent upon their use the patient becomes. Not so with the "Pellets." Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation and its attendant discomfort and manifold derangements.

The Pellets cure costiveness, or constipation, biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic.

They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Don't accept some substitute, said to be "just as good." The substitute costs the dealer less.

It costs you ABOUT the same. His profit is in the " just as good.'
